

TGIFIVE

5 THINGS YOU MUST DO AND SEE

Alice Cooper is in South Florida this weekend.

1. NORTON'S BIG WEEKEND!

The museum's Chinese Moon Festival is Sunday, while a new exhibit devoted to New York art opens. PAGE 27

2. GET YOUR HOUSING ASSISTANCE!

The Palm Beach Home Show is this weekend at the downtown convention center. PAGE 15

3. FEEL THE BIG BEAT!

The thundering sound of big taiko drums fills the air at the Morikami Museum this weekend. Plus: Check out Stitch Rock in Delray this weekend, PAGE 15

Akon will perform at Mizner Park on Saturday.

4. A BIG CONCERT WEEKEND!

The Killers, Third Eye Blind, Patti LaBelle, Alice Cooper and The Black Crowes are in concert in South Florida over the coming days. PAGES 24-25

5. RAPPING FOR A CAUSE!

Akon is among the artists appearing at a Mizner Park fund-raising concert this weekend for breast cancer research. PAGE 22

Akon to perform at Think Pink Rocks Saturday in Boca

Kick off October's Breast Cancer Awareness Month by dancing your booty off — for a good cause, of course. Join singer/songwriter Akon, best known for singles like Locked Up, I Wanna Love You and the undeniably singable Don't Matter, along with Melanie Fiona, Kardinal Offishall, Shontelle, American Yard and BET "106 and Park" hosts Terrence and Rocsi at the Centre for the Arts at Mizner Park in Boca Raton for "Think Pink Rocks."

2008 AP file photo

Akon will appear at Mizner Park's Centre for the Arts.

It's the second-annual musical benefit created by Boca resident and cancer survivor Stephanie Robin, benefiting cancer research facilities including New York's Memorial Sloan-Kettering. Last year's show, hosted by Queen Latifah, featured surprise appearances by celebrities like Gabrielle Union. Who knows who might show up this year?

Think Pink Rocks, featuring Akon, 7 p.m. Saturday, Centre for the Arts at Mizner Park. (561) 702-6116.

— Leslie Gray Streeter